

Thank you for your interest in booking a seminar with Worlds Apart. The following information is designed to address some common questions regarding our seminars. However if your questions are not answered by the following, please email additional inquiries to brett@brettullman.com

How many classes may attend a seminar?

We are happy to include the entire grade 7/8 division provided there is a space within your school in which they can all gather. Within a High School, any collection of classes or grades is suitable.

Information of costs

The charitable works of Worlds Apart are made possible solely through our honorariums. Being that we offer seminars for school groups as small as 25 to those numbering in the thousands, we have endeavored to set reasonable seminar rates in order to make our information accessible to all.
